From Dependence to Prosperity: Two Women's Stories of Strength

La Casa de Don Pedro offers a free Home Health Aide (HHA) certification program where tuition, books and uniform are all included at no charge. Andriana Alvarez (left) and Angeli Coronado (right) are two Newark women who recently completed the program. The training opportunity, along with their own perseverance and determination, has helped them both set out on a transformative path towards economic prosperity. [Read More]

La Casa Staff Joins Together For #WearOrangeDay

Teen Dating Violence is a serious issue with long term impact.

According to the U.S. Administration of Children and Families, one in ten high school students "... has been purposefully hit, slapped, or physically hurt by a boyfriend or girlfriend and one in six college women has been sexually abused in a dating relationship." It's too much.

La Casa joined the national movement to raise awareness about Teen Dating Violence on February 13. #WearOrangeDay was a day to join together, show solidarity, and educate the community about abuse in adolescent relationships. Click here to see how we stood up against Teen Dating Violence.

Helping to End Food Insecurity In Newark

La Casa de Don Pedro was featured in the documentary, "Food For Thought: The Path To Food Security In Newark, NJ" that premiered on January 30th at the Priory in Newark.
