

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

ESL-Home Health Aide Instructor

About Us

La Casa de Don Pedro, Inc., based in Newark, is New Jersey's largest Latinx led community development corporation celebrating 50 years of mission driven and visionary service. Formed in 1972 as a community-based, grassroots organization committed to empowering the Latinx community, the organization was named in honor of Puerto Rican nationalist, Don Pedro Albizu Campos, who advocated the twin virtues of self-sufficiency and empowerment. Today, La Casa has expanded its commitment to the empowerment of Black and Brown communities in Newark and throughout Essex County.

La Casa de Don Pedro provides comprehensive and integrated services in the following areas: early childhood development, youth educational, cultural, and recreational programs, youth and family counseling, HIV/AIDS prevention and services, workforce development, affordable housing development and counseling, community engagement and development, lead remediation and abatement, and home energy conservation assistance. Who we Seek La Casa de Don Pedro seeks an ESL-Home Health Aide Instructor that supports the Program Coordinator in assisting with the day-to-day administration and operations of the Community Empowerment Department. To be successful in this role, the ESL-Home Health Aide Instructor should be passionate about teaching, experienced in contextualized instruction, and enjoys working with adults. The ESL-Home Health Aide Instructor will serve as an integral member of the Community Empowerment Department and will contribute to the overall efficiency of La Casa de Don Pedro by providing personalized and timely support.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Provide in-person, group instruction to students who are preparing to take the Home Health Aide Certification Exam.
- Build contextualized ESL lesson plans by incorporating Health Occupations vocabulary and technical information.
- Work with students to improve their oral and writing skills.
- Take, monitor, and report attendance.
- Work in conjunction with the Program Coordinator to address any disciplinary or attendance concerns.
- Monitor and assist students through the 60 hours of Workforce Preparation hours dedicated to learning the specifics around the role of U.A.P. (unlicensed assistive personnel) in nursing care settings.
- Assist students in acquiring foundations for working with people, safety, systems and related care, and home care.

Educational & Experience Requirements:

- Bachelor of Arts Degree or TESOL Certification.
- Minimum of 1 year of experience teaching ESL and/or Home Health Aide Certification preparation classes to the adult population.
- Excellent organizational, presentation, communication, and interpersonal skills.

Physical Requirements:

- Required to stand for long periods of time.*

The physical demands described here are representative of those that must be met by an employee to successfully perform the essential functions of this job. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.*
